PREFACE

G. K. Hall Bibliographic Guides are comprehensive annual subject bibliographies. They bring together publications cataloged by The Research Libraries of The New York Public Library and the Library of Congress for thorough subject coverage. Included are works in all languages and all forms—non-book materials as well as books and serials.

Bibliographic Guides provide complete LC cataloging information for each title, as well as ISBN and identification of NYPL holdings. Access is by main entry (personal author, corporate body, names of conference, etc.), added entries (co-authors, editors, compilers, etc.), titles, series titles, and subject headings. All entries are integrated into one alphabetical sequence. Full bibliographic information, including tracings, is given in the main entry, with abbreviated or condensed citations for secondary entries. Subject headings appear in capital letters in bold-face type. Cataloging follows the Anglo-American Cataloging Rules. Following is a sample entry with full bibliographic information:

INTRODUCTION

The Bibliographic Guide to Theatre Arts lists publications cataloged during the past year by The Research Libraries of The New York Public Library with additional entries from Library of Congress MARC tapes. It also serves as an annual supplement to the Catalog of the Theatre and Drama Collections, The Research Libraries of The New York Public Library (G.K. Hall, 1963; First Supplement, 1973).

The word "theatre" is interpreted in its broadest sense and covers the stage, cinema, radio, television, nightclub performances, the circus, vaudeville, marionettes, and magic. Holdings of the Theatre Collection relate to stage history, production techniques, acting, theatre criticism, biography, and material on individual theatres. Typescripts of plays, promptbooks, shooting scripts of motion pictures, and radio and television production scripts make up an important segment of the Collection's holdings.

The Drama Collection consists of plays written in the minor as well as the major languages; translations as well as original editions have been sought. Included are volumes containing a single dramatic work, the collected plays or selections from the plays of a single author, and dramas appearing in anthologies or periodicals. All titles cataloged during the past year and held in the Drama Collection are included in this Guide.

Entries from LC MARC tapes cover dramatic composition, dramatic representation, collections of drama, and special types of drama (including tragedy, comedy, ballet and film). Selection from LC MARC tapes is based on the following LC classification numbers: PN 1600 through PN 3299 and PN 6110.5 through PN 6120.

A successful novelist revisits scenes of his childhood, when he and his two brothers were homeless orphans surviving by their wits amid the chaos of World War II.
